Be an IARU Global Summer Scholar and engage in critical issues of the 21st Century. Work with scholars, communities and organizations to address issues of local, regional and global transformation, and deepen your understanding of critical research approaches and processes. The course is jointly offered by UC-Berkeley and University of Copenhagen in collaboration with Chiang Mai University.

Themes that will be addressed in the course include: a) Borders and boundaries b) Mobilities and immobilities c) Environment and natural resource management d) Human in/security and social justice.

- Where: Chiang Mai, Thailand
- When: June 20 – July 18 – 2018 (in Thailand June 25 – July 18)
- Who: Advanced undergraduate (bachelor level) and postgraduate (Master level) – open for students from all disciplines. ECTS 7.5
- Deadline for application: 16 March 2018
- For tuition fee, scholarship and more information about application: www.IARUNI.org